Canada Child Benefit

Canada Child Benefit (CCB) is a program provided by the Government of Canada to assist families with children. It is available to families with children under the age of 18 and is delivered in two ways: a monthly payment and a tax credit.

The monthly payment is called the Canada Child Benefit (CCB) and is paid to families with children. The tax credit is called the Canada Child Tax Benefit (CCTB) and is tax-free money that families can receive.

Families can apply for the CCB and CCTB by using a form called RC66, Canada Child Benefits Application. They can also use RC66SCH, Status in Canada/Statement of Income to update their information.

More information about the CCB and CCTB can be found on the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) website: www.cra-arc.gc.ca/bnfts/ddrss-eng.html.

To learn more about the monthly payment and tax credit, visit CRA’s website: www.cra-arc.gc.ca/myaccount/index.html.
