

Newfoundland Resettlement Assistance Program (RAP) Rates

Monthly income support is intended to cover basic needs such as food, incidentals, shelter, transportation and a communication allowance. Other special allowances may be added based on need.

Household composition	Basic needs allowance	Shelter allowance	Communication allowance
Single adult	$534	$372	$75
Single adult with one or more children	$694	$372	$75
Couple	$756	$372	$75
Couple with one or more children	$742	$372	$75
Family of 2 +	$742	$372	$75

Housing Supplement: up to a maximum of $200, may be issued when actual housing expenses exceed the basic shelter allowance. If the RAP file is still open at time of receipt (no retroactive payments will be made). In order to be considered for this allowance, refugees must submit to IRCC documentation, such as a lease agreement, indicating that their total housing costs (including utilities) exceed the maximum shelter allowances issued under RAP.

Fuel supplement will be given for an applicant or recipient maintaining a residence on the island portion of the province, up to a maximum of $71, where the cost of heat is not included in the amount of rent.

Transportation rate
St. John's	http://www.metrobus.com/fares.asp
Transportation allowance is provided to each adult including seniors as per the rate of public transit for adults and seniors in their community, or a minimum of $75/month, whichever is greater. For rates, consult the link above. Note: in communities where there is no public transit, a flat transportation rate of $75 is issued.
